Transport:

Provided by a local Pembrokeshire Coach Company (Richard Brothers)

NB: It will not be possible to pick up from individual HQs BUT once we know the geography of Troops attending, we will aim to provide pick up and drop off points as local to your location as possible.

Or...

You can provide your own transport to and from the venue.

NB: Once in Pembrokeshire, we will provide transport to the activities as part of the activities cost.

Accommodation:

Bunkhouse or camping, the choice is yours.

NB: if using the bunkhouse, all bedding is provided.

NB: If camping, you are responsible for transporting your own camping equipment to Wales.

Nights Away Permits:

If you do not have a Nights Away Permit you can still come. The ACC Scouts (Steve Dodd) is happy to be the permit holder for any Troops in this position, but you will need to select the bunkhouse option.

Activity Permits:

No Activity permits will be required as all activities that require permits will be covered by qualified staff from commercial companies.

Catering

If staying in the bunkhouse, all meals are provided.

If camping, you can choose to either self-cater or allows us to take the pressure of shopping and catering.

NB: Tea and Coffee (along with cake of course) will be available throughout the day for leaders when at the campsite. A drinks station will be available for all youth participants.

Payment Packages:

Yes= what you are selecting for us to provide.

No= what you are selecting to do for yourselves.

Email address:

As Scout Troops vary immensely in size, a rough estimate of potential numbers that you think may come on camp would be helpful. Please note that the numbers you give on this form are only approximate and can be changed after the Scouts have returned their forms and deposits. The numbers, at this point, are really to help me understand whether I am organising an event for 50 Scouts or 250 Scouts!

Number of Scouts who may be interested:

Number of Young Leaders/Explorers who may be interested:

Number of Leaders who may be interested:

Please return this form in the stamped addressed envelope by or before 30th September 2014.
