

Moot VI

Suffolk Scout & Guide Camp 2017

At

Bentwaters Parks, Woodbridge

Bank Holiday Weekend
Fri 25th to Mon 28th August

Moot VI

Great Location, Join the fun and adventure

OPEN to all Suffolk Scouts and Guides, Senior Section members i.e. Explorers, Rangers, Young Leaders.

Everyone will be camping within a Sub Camp with its own Sub Camp Leaders who will make you welcome and help with organisation. Each Sub Camp will have its own identity – scarf colour, theme name. There will be a camp badge with the winning competition logo on it.

Activities:

Many and varied including all types of archery, abseiling, camp crafts, pedal go-karts, backwards cooking, cave maze, bumper boats, astrojet flight simulator and much much more. Full programme of Evening Entertainment also!

Explorers and Senior Section:

A special sub camp, with central catering (additional cost will be applied), just for you with some activities specifically designed to appeal to your age range.

Cost:

£85 per person, self-catering. However, if we receive your application before 31st March 2017 then you may reduce the cost to £80 per person. The cost covers all site fees, your Moot Badge, Moot Booklet and Scarf as well as all the activities and bases. Leaders and Helpers are just £5.00 which also includes your Scarf and Moot badge. With your application form we just require a £20/per person non-refundable deposit.

Want to camp longer?

Then come and extend your camp from the Wednesday 23rd at an extra cost of just £3 per person/per night. You will be responsible for organising your own activities, whilst enjoying the surroundings of Bentwaters Parks before the MOOT VI programme starts late Friday afternoon.

MOOT VI ends at 4 pm on the Bank Holiday Monday. Exact times to be notified by your Sub Camp Leader as a staggered system of arrival/departure may be put in place.
